Greetings Dear Brethren,

I hope this message finds you all in good spirits and excellent health as we gather for our April communication. This month, we will hear from our treasurer, who will present the lodge's financial report. This update will give us a clear understanding of where we currently stand financially and what steps we may need to take moving forward.

Following the opening and closing of the lodge, we will remain in the lodge room for a special presentation on the history of Carpenter Emmanuel Lodge #588. This presentation will be delivered by Very Worshipful William Flores and Worshipful Carlos Luna, and it promises to be both informative and engaging for all in attendance.

During our last communication, we held a ballot for Mr. Alejandro Siu Chong Mei, who was found favorable. We will also take some time to discuss potential dates for a special communication to confer the First Degree upon him, ensuring that we continue progressing with our important work.

I would also like to extend my sincere thanks to Worshipful Carlos Luna for his outstanding lecture on the spirit and its connection to Masonry. The presentation was very well received and sparked a night filled with thoughtful and enthusiastic discussion among the brothers.

Lastly, I am pleased to report that I attended the Grand Lodge special communication, where all six proposed amendments passed unanimously. Based on the discussions from the various Grand Lodge committees, it is clear that Masonry in New York is moving in a strong direction toward growth and stability. I encourage each of you to sign up for the "Meet the Candidate" Zoom meetings to become familiar with the brothers running for Grand Line positions.

I look forward to seeing you all at this communication, as well as at our upcoming May 19th installation and elections, and especially at our final June 16th communication for wine and pizza night in honor of the late Michael P. Winkler.

Your Humble Servant,
W. . Charles Williams
